- We have 11 sponsors for the fun run.
- An e-mail will go out to the committee to set up a meeting. The committee will then coordinate decorating the school with posters, prize distribution, pep rally, etc.
- There will be a sign-up genius set up on the PTF page of the HCA website for volunteers. We will need volunteers for the day of the event (shirt markers, shoe tying, snack and water station, etc.) as well as volunteers to distribute daily prizes in the morning after drop-off on the days leading up to the event.
- The kick-off pep rally will be on October 23rd. We are in need of a few good dads to dress up and help with a skit during the pep rally.
- The grand prize for this year's top earner will be a bowling and pizza party for 10 at Shenaniganz. This prize was donated by Shenaniganz.
- We will have small daily prizes in the days prior to the event. The top student from each class will receive a prize with Mrs. Minter (ex. Egg roulette during chapel where the kids get to crack an egg on Mrs. Minter and it may or may not be boiled). The teacher with the top earning class will get to keep 10% of the class earnings to use in their classroom.

- The PTF plans to use the funds raised from this year's fun run to purchase a zip line for the playground as well as additional Chromebooks and other classroom needs.

Grandparents Day at the Book Fair:

- Leslee discussed Grandparents Day which will be on October 16th from 8 a.m. until 2 p.m.
- We need volunteers the day of the event to work the register, sign the grandparents in, and run to get the students from their classrooms. A sign-up genius is set up on the PTF page of the HCA website for this event. Go to support, PTF, volunteer opportunities.
- We will have a photo backdrop set up to take pictures of the students and their grandparents. Emily Colbert is working on finding a printer or other option to give us the ability to give same day photos to the grandparents.
